Day 1: Take a trip to Norfolk, Virginia to see the Virginia International Tattoo, elaborate military marching band performances featuring personnel from over a dozen militaries around the world. Named the “Top 100 Events in North America” by the American Bus Association. Stay in Virginia Beach for two nights.

Day 2: This morning, visit the Nauticus Museum and the USS Wisconsin before the NATO Fest to include seated access to the NATO Parade of Nations, the longest continuously running parade in Hampton Roads, with military bands, local and visiting high school performers, and colorful floats. Join in the NATO International Village to explore the heritage, cultural performances, art, cuisine, and craft beers of participating countries. You will have a step-on guided tour of Norfolk before the spectacular performance of the Virginia International Tattoo, one of the largest military band performances in the U.S. (CB,D)

Day 3: Visit the Cape Henry Lighthouse before traveling home with a greater appreciation of the wonderful city of Norfolk. (CB)
